what/where/when

WELCOME TO OTHERWORLD!

Giddy up, ya cosmonaut buckaroos - time to slam your thrusters into full gear because we've got a good time ahead! In this handy document, you'll find lists of sound stages, theme camps, and art projects, as well as a day-by-day schedule of Otherworldly events and a map to help you get around (complete map with art & theme camp locations can be found at Centre Camp). But first, here's a recap of the principles that make Otherworldian society what it is, in ten words or less:

SELF-EXPRESSION

Be exactly who you are without any judgement - seriously!

RADICAL INCLUSION

Everyone is included and invited to participate in Otherworld.

ACCOUNTABILITY

We are responsible for our own actions, emotions, and experiences.

RESPECT

We treat each other with equality, tolerance, and respect, always.

CONSENT

Anything but an enthusiastic "yes" should be taken as "no".

GIFTING

No money is exchanged and gifts are unconditional.

DECOMMODIFICATION

There is no advertising, sponsorship or transactions at Otherworld.

RADICAL SELF-RELIANCE

Take care of yourself, nobody else is responsible for you.

COMMUNAL EFFORT

It takes a village to produce Otherworld - we work together.

CIVIC RESPONSIBILITY

We are all citizens of this temporary society - act responsibly.

LEAVE NO TRACE

Clean up after yourself and your peers.

PARTICIPATION

Our community is a do-ocracy. Leave camp & get involved!

IMMEDIACY

You can't plan the spontaneous moments - go with the flow.
